Dear Dan:

I am finally returned from my peripatetic wanderings through the Far East, only to find that I have a new job. As you probably heard, Pete Scoville resigned in mid-June and they have asked me to take over. In this new job, it may be that our paths will cross in a more frequent and natural way.

In any case, I wanted to take this opportunity to indicate how much I enjoyed  on my first visit. Your wife's shopping assistance was most helpful and I thoroughly enjoyed our Russian evening together.

25X1

Sincerely,

25X1

Albert D. Wheelon
